

December 2025

Hello{{ contact.NAME }},

As the year winds down and there are no more meetings on the calendar, I wanted to send a brief note to wish you, your family and friends, colleagues, fellow board members and your organization a very happy holiday season.

Thank you for choosing BoardSpace, for trusting us with your board's documents and meeting workflow. Volunteer-led organizations do important work, often with limited time and resources, and we don't take lightly the trust you place in us to play a small role in making your governance a little easier and a little more organized.

Progress on Version 4 continues steadily, and we're excited about where it's headed. The focus is simple: make BoardSpace faster, smoother, and even more helpful for the people who do the work—administrators, directors, committee leads, and everyone else who keep meetings productive and follow-ups under control.

I'll be back in touch early in the new year with more details on Version 4.

Until then, I hope you get a chance to rest, recharge, and enjoy some well-earned time away from meetings, agendas, and minutes, at least for a little while.

Warm wishes,
Pat
